Whether you are a brand-new speaker or an established professional, you've come to the right place. "Present" Yourself in Public Speaking fills a huge gap in public-speaking education. While most public-speaking books and courses rehash the mechanics of public speaking, this book provides a rare insight into the psychology of public speaking. For example, you may have heard that public speaking is people's number one fear in life. It turns out, most people are usually not afraid of public speaking at all; it's public judgment that they most fear. This fear and ones like it impact people's ability to connect authentically and authoritatively with their audience. The other major player affecting authentic connection with audiences is the "inner critic." Every human being has an inner critic, and everyone who speaks publicly has had to deal with their inner critic on some level. Now factor in the idea that every person in the audience has an inner critic also, and you begin to see the challenge! Using the techniques laid out in this book, Mary Cheyne was able to transform from a shy, self-conscious computer programmer into a world-class public speaker, culminating in a 2nd place win in the 2009 World Championship of Public Speaking, out of 25,000 contestants from 14 countries. She has now been a professional speaker and trainer for the better part of a decade. The insights, tools, and advice in this book, derived from Mary Cheyne's years of real-world experience teaching and presenting to thousands of people, will permanently transform your experience of public speaking. "Present" Yourself in Public Speaking addresses: * Detailed insights about how and why you, as a human, have an inner critic and self-doubt. * Practical tools and processes, so you can snap yourself out of it when your inner critic takes over. * A simple process to eliminate self-doubt as well as concrete ways to build self-trust. * Common myths about public speaking and how they hold you back. * How to be real and relatable to your audience. * An easy-to-follow formula for authentic stage presence. * A long-term inside-out path to public-speaking mastery, so you can continue to improve, no matter what level you are currently at. Are you ready to break through to your best self and shine through authentically on the stage? Are you ready to finally tell your inner critic to shut up, so the real you can speak up?

Passionate Public Speaking Sep 23 2019 This is a public speaking book, it is not a manual, but rather a motivational book, one that you can read and re-read over and over again. A book to give you the courage to follow your path to success. No matter what you do at some point in your journey, you will need to learn public speaking and you need to do it well. You can't evolve without public speaking, just as you can't evolve without goal setting or time management. It's not the speaking that's complicated, it's the fear. After you speak a few times it will be much better. You just have to start. In your next speeches you will choose to be more expressive, more energetic, more dynamic, more vocal, smile more and laugh with the audience. Set these positive expectations, don't be scared. Every one of us started with this fear, our opening speeches were lame, and if someone filmed us then and showed us now how we started I think we would feel a little embarrassed. That's exactly why don't be harsh on yourself. I know you want to get as many results as possible immediately, but for starters choose to be just a little bit better than yesterday, a little bit better than those around you. Don't want too much from yourself all at once, because the weight of what you want will be too much for your untrained shoulders and that weight will overwhelm you. Choose a steady workout and progressively increase the weight you put on your shoulders, that's the only way you'll succeed in self-improvement. Try to make your message just a little bit better than the other speakers and for that try to prepare a little bit better than them. This is the secret and if you can understand it then your life can be one of genuine success. There are thousands of people who do this as a profession, on a professional level. That's probably what you want to do too, I would think, from the moment you bought or received this book as a gift. What you need to understand, right from the start, is that the audience in the room is different. There are many ways to characterize it but I think if you pick these three categories that I present in my public speaking books it will be much easier for you to calibrate to the audience and control the room. Understand that the audience will have three attitudes towards you, these attitudes overlap the three groups you have in the room. The audience judges you and evaluates you according to their own criteria. Why is public speaking vital? Because no matter how much you speak in front of the mirror it is not the same as speaking in front of those who are watching you and who can give you feedback. No matter how good that speech in the mirror is you will not get feedback from your reflected image. Mirror speaking is just the beginning of your public speaking career. The real test is whether or not you pass in front of an audience. Public speaking will increase your influence and make you a better leader. Genuine leaders know how to speak, and their messages get into the minds and hearts of those who listen. You too can become a great leader by building the influence you need step by step through the Culture of Value.
